

LOS CABALLEROS

Row One—Haber—Secretary, Akin, Ridenour, Wrightsel, Heath, Hizey, Turner, Kern, Briner, Hart, Hammond
Row Two—Miss Johnson, Purcell, Kitsmiller, Carnes, Clark, Kistler, Rodman, Sweeney, Boggs, Raines, Bolar, Van Horn, Miss Mertz
Row Three—Jeffries, Ochs, Walter, Eslinger, Karns, Ward, Mattox, Behrens, Bolar, Stevens, Hightower
Row Four—De Long, McKibben, Hudson, MacIntosh, Crist, Hightower, Leohner, Cummins, Daugherty, Kerns, Shonting, Sherburn, Wilson, Blake, Miller
Row Five—Kistler, Huffine, Kelley, Timberlake—President, Huddle, Swett—Treasurer, Heath, Simons, Herdman, Callahan, Pifer, Wilkinson, Briggs, Johnson—Vice-President, Shatz, Byerly, Lawrence

"Pardon me for talking in your face, Senorita. I'm looking for the Spanish Club picnic." . . . Initiations . . . formal and informal . . . Candlelight and Raw Oysters . . . And that slimy spaghetti . . . Ah, yes . . . What fun! . . . "Don't those new members look cute down on their knees like that?" . . . "I don't like spearmint!" . . . Yes, that's informal initiation for you . . . but, what fun! Thanks to Miss Johnson and Miss Mertz the Spanish Club always "pulls through." Truly they are "Los Caballeros" . . . (It says here!)