

SENIORS

HARRY MOWERY—inventor of all-night sucker for people who work at night

PATRICIA MOWERY—billed at the "Met" as most promising soprano

JOHN MOSS—now arranging music for most of the large orchestras

MARCELLA MUCK—is leading the descendants of the Aztecs in the footsteps of Montezuma

EARL MUNCY—has devised some new colors which he is using on his latest murals in Chicago

PHYLLIS NAUMAN—a rugged lumberjack in Canada

JIM NIXON—touring country with group of daredevil drivers

MURIEL NORRIS—staff photographer for a Columbus newspaper

DORIS NUTTER—manager of a dime store and has turned over more dimes than ever before

WILLIAM NYE—no news since he dropped out of school

DOROTHY PALM—manager of Singer Sewing Machine Shop in Lancaster

FRED POLING—blending face powders for individual customers in his beauty shoppe

MARGARET PORTER—has sped up production at the Ford Motor Co. since becoming personnel manager

RONNIE PUGH—designing new amusement rides guaranteed to make even a strong man sick

JANE RAUCH—featured vocalist with a name dance orchestra

LOUIE REAM—hearing of some wild women in Africa, has offered to help capture them

MARY ANN REID—fire marshall for the Central Ohio District

DORIS RELIFORD—fastest quick-change artist on the stage

