

In American History students not only study the past but through daily discussion of current events are kept informed on present day happenings as well.

WE SEE THE WORLD . . .

In Civics students study the ways in which our Government functions and acquire much knowledge that will help them become good citizens.