

In Machine Shop a limited number of junior and senior boys learn to operate machinery preparatory to becoming machinists.

OF ART AND INDUSTRY

Here we see boys working with metal and plastics. They make a variety of articles, such as hammers, screw drivers, chisels, magazine racks, and ash trays. A specialty today is the making of articles of the currently popular wrought iron.