

Becky Eggert, on Drum Major Ed Kitchen's arm, walked happily between an arch of majorette batons at Homecoming.

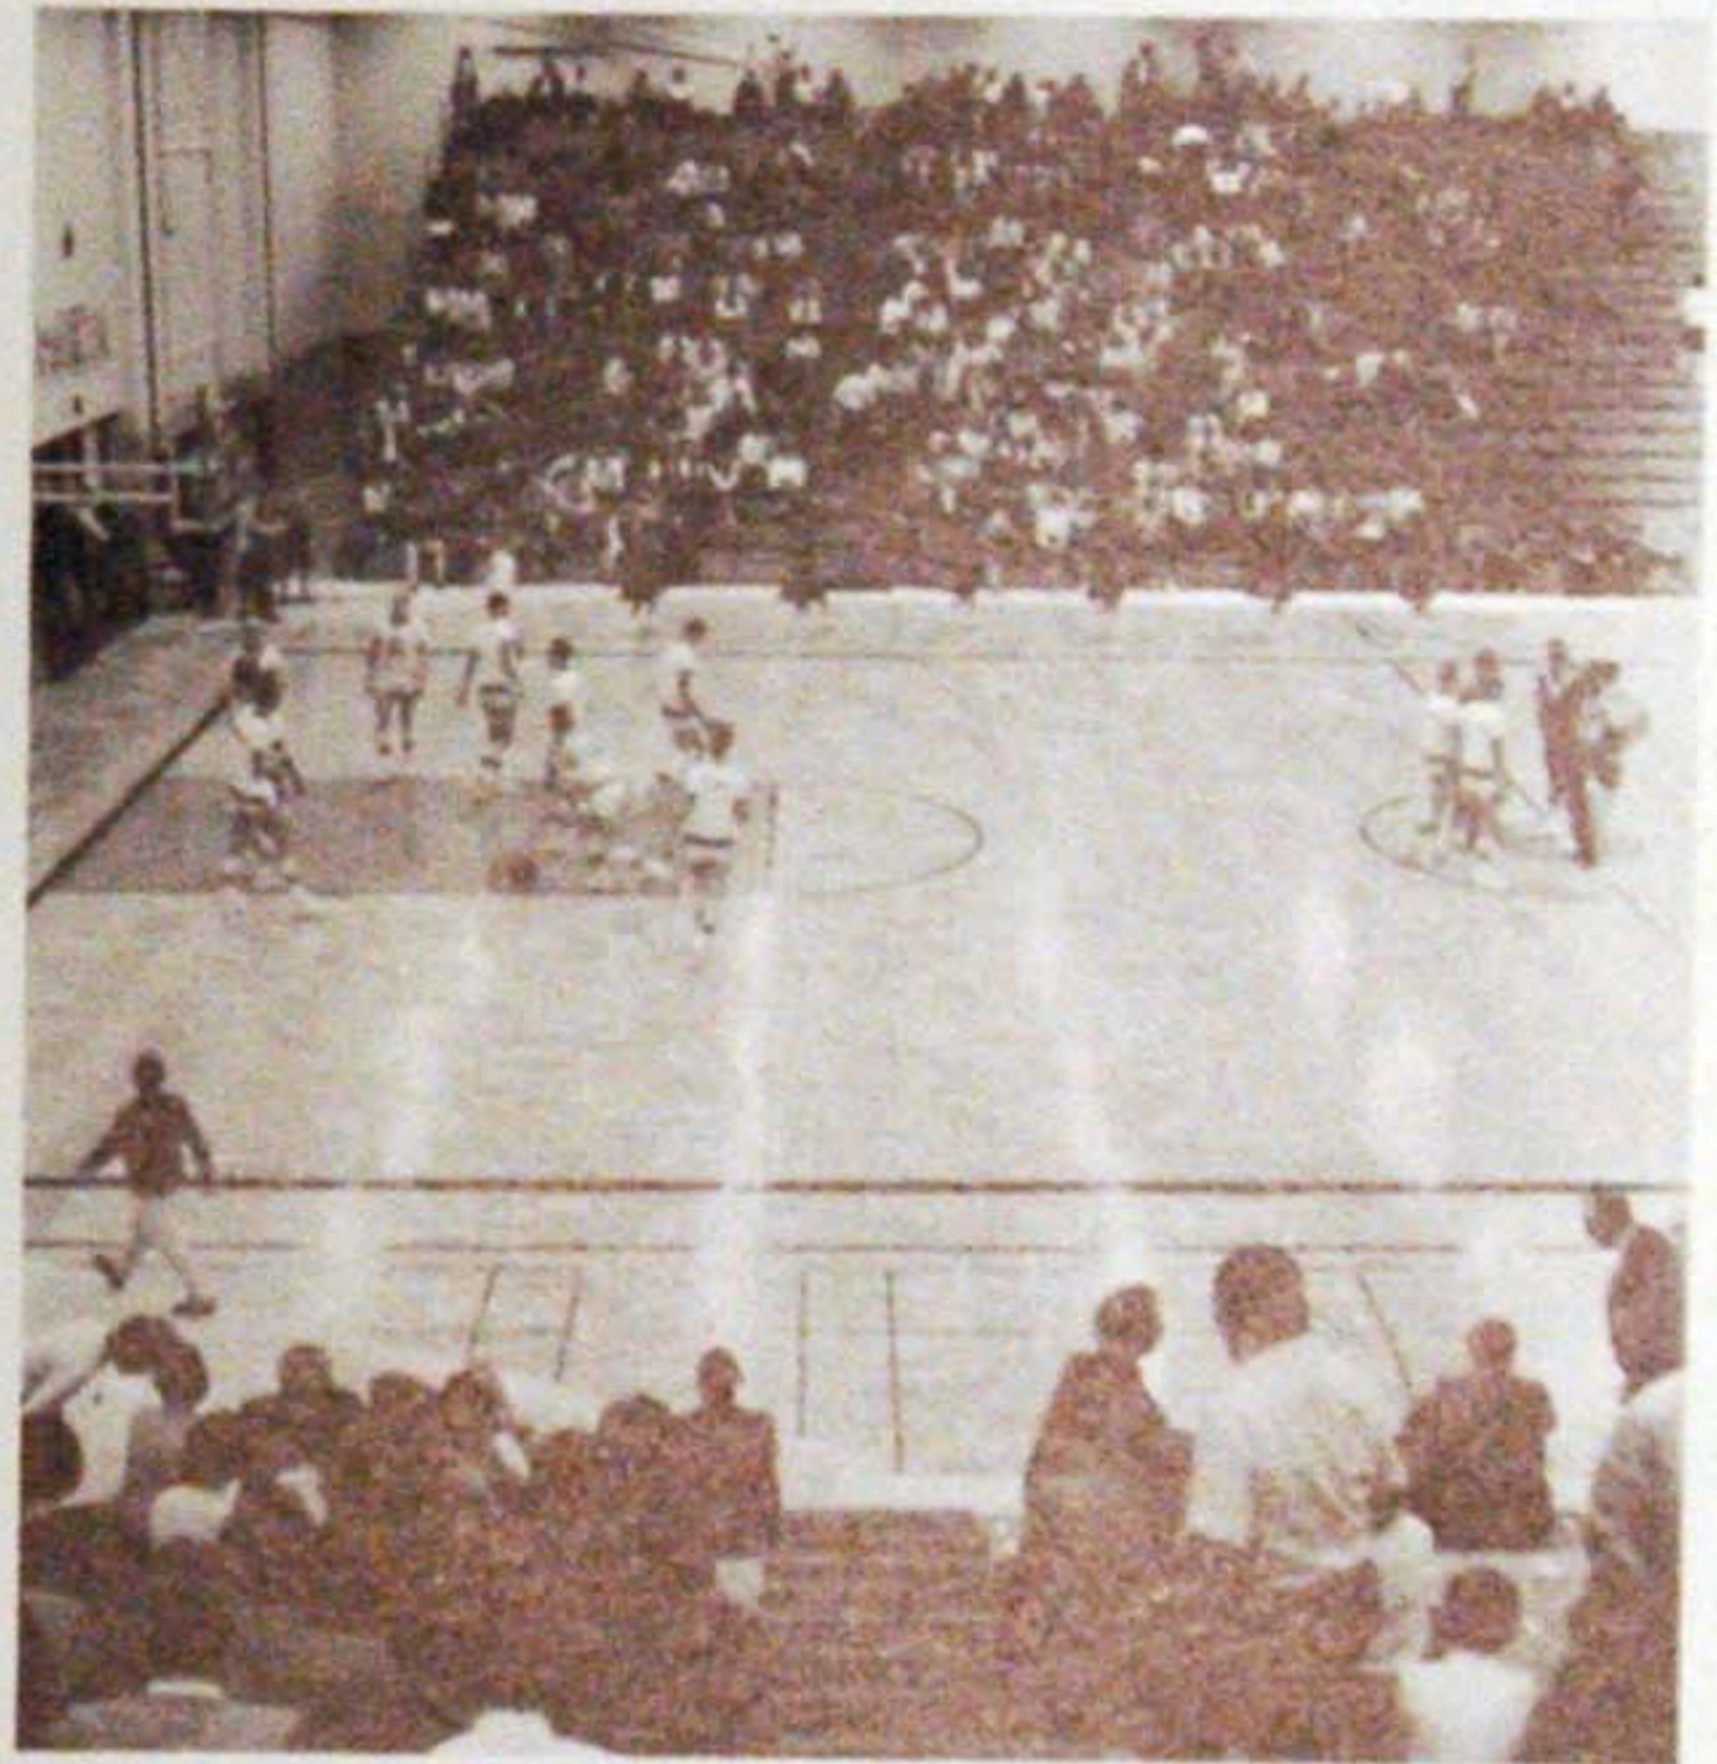

Up and over! These boys put on a gymnastics exhibition at half-time.

Participated in new activities . . .

The scorer's table was an active place during most basketball games.

The basketball team warmed up while a typical crowd of students prepared to cheer them on.

With determined expressions the boys on the football team climbed onto the bus for an away game.