Key Club Members At State Meeting

By Barbara Lahrmer
Bewilderment best describes the state Porter Miller was in when he was elected Ohio District Governor at the State Key Club Convention in Cleveland, April 1 and 2.

Senior Plans

By Linda Kane
Just what are you going to do after graduation? Maybe college is on the agenda. Seen is the case with a large number of this week's seniors from Miss Johnson's report room, 117.

John Hudson plans to work this summer and enter Ohio University Branch College in September. Jerry Hoskins is going to work as an apprentice electrician, also entering O. U. Branch College.

Elementary teaching is the vocation Virginia Lane has chosen. She will go to Graceland College in Iowa for two years and finish her education in Ohio. Music and Ohio State University beckon Pat Keller.

Pug Johnson hopes to enter West Point on the first Tuesday in July, but if he isn't accepted, he plans to enter the College of Agriculture at Ohio State. Kathy Keiser, David Knepper, and Charles Lambert are going to work this summer, then enter college in the fall.

Jim Hurmes is undecided as to whether he will go to college or enter the service. Randy Kidd, on the other hand, is going to college, with football as a main objective.

Lynn Irvin, John Keiser, and Gary Kauffman will continue their apprenticeships at Hermann's Manufacturing Co. Ronnie Irvin plans to start his work at Anchor Hocking Glass Corp. Glenn Kitcher wants to work in a factory, and if possible take training to work at Western Electric Co. in Columbus.

Paul Knox is going to be a carpenter or maybe teach guitar, and Larry LeFever has definite plans on a career as a commercial airline pilot. To get a good paying job and to go fishing are Gail Jefferson's ambitions.

The Air Force calls Stephen Hoffman into its ranks, while John Kohler and Larry London are joining the Navy.

Rasma Jansons plans to get a secretarial job and later enter O. U. Branch College. Lonnell Kinder wants to work as a typist; receptionist; Barbara Kuhn plans to do general office work; and Carolyn Kessler wants to get a job as a bookkeeper or go to Western Union School.

Terrie Huston, after taking it easy for a while, is going into bookkeeping work. Linda Hughes and Carol Keller plan to enter a beautician school.

Nursing will add two members to its profession in several years. Karim James will take her training at Grant Hospital, while Bea Kellon will take hers at Holzek Hospital.

New Year Baby 'Butch' Eaton Is Top Athlete

By Becky Lutz
"Who's that red-haired boy walking out on the field?" asked one of the spectators at a LHS football game. Why, it's none other than Roland "Butch" Eaton, Lancaster's New Year's Baby of 1942.

"Boy, that must have been a proud moment for his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Eaton, 433 Garfield Ave.," said one LHS student. Butch also has a married brother and sister, Tom and Coleen, and a boxer dog, Lady.

When not participating in football or track, Butch may be found attending a Varsity L or H-Y meeting. "I can't forget my subjects, which include Math, English, World History, aviation and civics," states Butch.

"I like all sports, but I can't forget my other favorites. Some weekend one may find him dreaming of his favorite color, blue; eating a meal containing T-bone steak; attending a movie starring Gina Lollobrigida or John Wayne; watching "The Untouchables" on TV; or listening to the song "There's Nothing Like A Dame" from South Pacific.

"People who think they know it all" is the first on his list of pet peeves.

Last, but by no means least, Butch said with a proud grin, "I will never forget the night of the Newark football game at North Field this year. It was great."

For his future, Butch plans to attend Whittier College and become a coach.

PROVES HIS POINT
SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Boo Steele, a technical writer at Convair Astronautics, promised a woman writer that she'd meet lots of bachelors if she joined the staff. She did just that and married one of them. Now, both have left the plant.

COWGIRLS ONLY
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP) — One requirement of candidates for queen of the New Mexico State Fair is that they be able to saddle a horse.

Paper Clips

By Shirley Kern and Cordelia Fisher
Whistling is fine, Joey Yates—but at yourself???

Congratulations are due to Marvin Fogel and Bob Heft for the fine jobs they did as chairmen of the mock presidential conventions.

Linda Karns, basketball should be played on the basketball court, NOT FROM THE SIDELINES!!!

Is Chris Veidr worried about something or was his gray hair a result of a make-up practice in speech class?

"Found a scarf! Found a scarf!" Unexpected guests do cause excitement. How about it, Sue Ann White?

Sonnie Arledge has a bad habit of putting things in other people's lockers. Doesn't she, Jerry Anderson and Kay Arter?

Speaking of habits, John Robson reads books backwards! Are they more interesting that way, John?

On a certain Friday night, several junior girls heard a glaring horn. The problem? Cindy Graf ran outside and couldn't get back into the house!

In the spring a young man's fancy turns to a - a - a-baseball. "GOOD LUCK" to the young men on the baseball team.

It seems Marge Ruff got a bang out of feeding her little lamb at 3 o'clock in the morning. Wonder why??

Congratulations are indeed due to Porter Miller who is now Governor of all Key Clubs in the state. This is a great honor and everyone at LHS is very proud of Porter.

A spring resolution—Shock yourself and the teachers by doing all assignments, getting A's on all tests, listening to all things in class, and spending all extra time studying.

This week the Purple Pique goes to anyone who thinks the best things in life are taxable.

Boy, isn't this easy livin'? That is for everyone who isn't caught on the spring clean-up crew!

Many people have the bad habit of going through red lights when they drive, but leave it to Maxine Dwyer to change that. She was seen stopping for a green light.

Easter Is Day Of Triumph To Renew Our Hope

By Jane Karcher
"Not my will, but Thine, be done." Thus in the Garden of Gethsemane Christ overcame perhaps His most difficult spiritual and emotional struggle. The Rev. Andrew Schilling of St. Peter's Lutheran Church quoted these words while speaking to students of L. H. S. at the April 8 Easter assembly. Rev. Schilling told of the homage paid to Jesus on Palm Sunday and of how men came to hate the One who had come to save them.

Not long after His solitude in Gethsemane, Jesus called to Him all of the chosen for a final meeting. Here began the first Holy Communion. But the betrayer was among them, and before long Jesus was taken by Roman guards and led up the Hill of Golgotha.

Even as Christ was nailed to the cross, even in His agony, He has forgiveness: "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." As Jesus died on the cross the words "It is finished," and "Into Thy hands I commend my spirit," ended His life on Earth. His mission was fulfilled. The disciples have been afraid to venture from their locked room. Sunday comes and with it triumph and glory for God; the great seal was broken, the huge stone rolled away.

Rev. Schilling ended with these words, "May you all have a joyous Easter, and never have fear because you have, through Jesus, a source of hope that will never dim."

The spring induction of county F. H. A. officers was held in the L. H. S. auditorium Monday night. Lorraine Scheu of the Lancaster chapter was inducted as county historian.

Acting as hostesses, the girls in the Lancaster organization made a centerpiece of red rosebuds for the induction ceremony and later distributed them to all the advisers present.

The F. H. A. choir sang three selections, and Annetta Geisy and Mary Cavanaugh presented a skit. All the girls participated in recreation in the gym. Approximately 325 girls from seven schools attended.

Future Engineers
Discussions concerning trips, pins, and rockets were carried on at a brief meeting of the Future Engineers Tuesday evening. The club voted to adopt a gold pin with a blue insignia, and various field trips were discussed.

However, the major problem to be solved was what to do with the full-scale rocket the club exhibited at the Science Fair. Lucrèce Aurand volunteered to accept the missile if the other members of the club would take it to her home. When asked her plans for the unwanted space ship, she answered, "I want it so I can set it in our backyard and plant ivy around it."

F. N. A.
Talks by the club members themselves and two films on tuberculosis were on the agenda for the Future Nurses when they met Tuesday night. Becky Raimier told about the work that the senior volunteers do at the hospital every week. Liz Miller and Margie Ruff spoke on the "Career Day" held last month at Ohio State University.

FFA
By Martin Harvey
The district FFA contest was held recently, and the Lancaster Chapter did very well in the contest, competing in District 12, in which five counties are entered. The star grain producer was Lyndon Johnson who will receive $25 for his efforts. The soil and water management winner was Joe Hyme, who also will receive $25.

Jim Hobbs placed second in Farm Electrification. Carl Ruble also placed second in Farm Mechanics. Jim Hobbs entered the Secretary's book and received a gold rating. Lyndon Johnson entered the treasurer's book and received a silver rating, and Martin Harvey entered his scrapbook and received a gold rating.

The chapter as a whole received a superior rating on all chapter activities. Lyndon Johnson and Joe Hyme will enter the state contest, competing against 14 other boys for the top award in the state in their respective fields. There are 27 schools and approximately 850 students in the local Vocational Agriculture district.

Science Club
The District Science Fair at Columbus last Saturday was attended by many L. H. S. students. Entrants winning a superior rating will go to the state competition later this year. The Science Club footed the bill for non-club members attending.

Key Club
By A Key Club Member
Key Club held its semi-monthly meeting April 5. Newly elected Governor of the state and president of the local Key Club, Porter Miller, was congratulated. Porter thanked the club for its support at the state convention last weekend.

A number of events were discussed and approved at the meeting. The Ohio Deaf Key Club has been invited to attend a recreation meeting. A parent appreciation picnic has been scheduled for Rising Park. A "slave day" has been set up as a money-making project. Also discussed at the meeting was a "Youth Salutes the Teachers" assembly.

Students Are Entertained At English Club Banquet

By Bonnie Wright
Mrs. Gerald Spittler spoke on the Ohioana Library of which she is chairman, at the English Club Banquet on April 5, in the ballroom of Hotel Lancaster.

Mrs. Spittler, teacher at Liberty Union High School, explained the purpose and establishment of the Ohioana Library Assn. The Martha Kinney Cooper Ohioana Library Association was named in honor of Martha Kinney Cooper, a first Lady of Ohio. Its chief purpose has been the preservation of Ohio's cultural heritage as found in the works of her authors and composers. Hence, the library's collection is a repository of books and music about Ohio or by Ohioans.

Decorations for the evening blended in well with the Easter and spring days ahead. The tables were placed in the shape of a U with green vases and daffodils adding to the attraction. An enchanting picture was the speaker's table enhanced with a combination of rabbits, baskets filled with mints, and yellow candles.

Guests present at the banquet were: Mrs. Gerald Spittler, Mrs. Reginald Pryor, Mrs. Gail Wacker, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lowry.

Comments were given by Mr. Lowry and Miss Mary Lee Duncan, club adviser.

The committee for the banquet consisted of Donna Walton, chairman, Sally Sutton, Carl Dittoe, and Sandy Pryor.

Officers of the English Club are Sarah Baker; president, first vice-president: Sally Sutton, second vice-president: Donna Walton, secretary: Sandy Pryor, and treasurer: Carl Dittoe. Their advisors are Miss Mary Lee Duncan, Mrs. Veda Porter, and Mrs. Virginia Fetters.

EDITORIAL

Twenty centuries ago a man was crucified in Jerusalem because of his religious teachings. Because of this event we take part in the observance of Palm Sunday, the Maundy Thursday, followed by Good Friday, and climaxed by Easter Sunday. This is the way many people feel towards Easter. Few seem to know just why they are celebrating this Holy Week.

On Good Friday Jesus of Nazareth was crucified on the Hill of Golgotha along with two criminals. The following Sunday he arose from the dead, and bade his followers to continue his teachings for him and to spread them throughout the world, thus giving hope and truth to the entire world.

Easter is the day for attending the church of your choice, dressing in your newest clothes, and hunting for colored Easter eggs. This is also the time that is most appropriate for thanking Him who made it possible for us to live in America.

Here both the richest and the poorest have a chance to make good. Very few countries in this modern age offer such opportunities for personal advancement. For this we should be most thankful.

Churches of this area will hold many special services, particularly on Good Friday and Easter morning. There will also be the inspiring Sunrise Service on Mt. Pleasant, Easter morning. Try to attend the church of your choice and to give thanks for who we have.

Besides music, Pat has a list of other favorites. She likes pizza; the movie, South Pacific; the book, Scarlet Letter; the song, Teddy; and the color, blue. (Needless to say, the last two go well together with the addition of the word, convertible.)

Among her pastimes, Pat enjoys skating, swimming, and especially modeling.

One thing for sure, if you have a date with Pat, don't be late! Lateness rates top in her list of pet peeves.

Several occasions will remain with Pat after she graduates with the Class of '60. She will never forget singing a solo with the symphonic band at the Spring Concert, and likewise, she will never forget the Class of '60's senior ball. Possibly, she will also remember the Miss Southeastern Ohio Pageant in which she will participate.

A busy gal indeed, but she still has time for extra activities, such as: Rainbow Girls, intramurals, Junior Twig Four, and Big Sisters, of which she is president. Pat also attends the Maple St. E. U. B. Church, where she sings in the senior choir.

Last, but not least, Pat wishes that in the years to come, her classmates will be blessed with success and happiness. So, when one thinks of music at L. H. S., one thinks of pert, popular, Pat. She's the girl with the song in her heart.

ELVIS' DAD TO MARRY—Vernon Presley, 44, father of rock 'n' roll Elvis, is shown with his bride-to-be, Mrs. Davada Elliott, a divorcee who has three sons. She is staying at Elvis' home in Memphis, Tenn. Mrs. Elliott's ex-husband is stationed with the U.S. Army in Germany where the older Presley met her. The latter's wife died more than year ago.
